

Frieze Talks at Frieze New York 2016

Frieze Talks is a series of lively conversations and panel discussions taking place daily at Frieze New York, curated by Tom Eccles (CCS Bard) & Christy Lange (frieze).

Thursday, May 5th

12pm Paola Antonelli (MoMA) & Stephanie Hankey (Tactical Technology Collective) in conversation

4pm Eileen Myles (poet and author): What a poet might be doing here

Friday, May 6th

12pm Dan Fox (frieze) & Mark Leckey (artist) in conversation

4pm The Technological Body and Its Discontents chaired by Omar Kholeif (MCA Chicago) with Zach Blas (artist), Andrea Crespo (artist) & Jacolby Satterwhite (artist)

Saturday, May 7th

12pm Hal Foster (critic) & Ben Lerner (poet and author): On Hating On...

4pm Version Control chaired by Joanne McNeil (writer) with Thomas Demand (artist), Oliver Laric (artist) and Stephanie Syjuco (artist)

Sunday, May 8th

12pm Lawrence Abu Hamdan (artist) & Holly Herndon (composer) in conversation

4pm Curator: Autodidact Polymath or Academic Expert? chaired by Jens Hoffmann (Jewish Museum) with Julia Bryan-Wilson (UC Berkeley), Michelle Grabner (School of the Art Institute of Chicago), Emiliano Valdés (Museum of Modern Art in Medellin) & Beatrice von Bismarck (Hochschule für Grafik und Buchkunst Leipzig)

Frieze Talks are open to all Frieze New York ticket-holders. Seats can be reserved from 11am at the Auditorium on the day of each talk. For the complete schedule and to download podcasts of Frieze Talks visit www.frieze.com