MEDIA ALERT

Senator Cory Booker Joins CMOM at Home's Digital "Storytime Saturday" Tomorrow, June 20, for Special Reading of Snowy Day by Ezra Jack Keats

What: As part of CMOM at Home's ongoing "Storytime Saturday" program, Senator Cory Booker is reading the classic children's book "Snowy Day" by Ezra Jack Keats. Join Senator Booker as he explores Peter's adventures in the snow - a perfect reading for those who need a respite from the warm summer days ahead.

"CMOM at Home" was launched to serve children and their families during this time of social distancing by offering online resources and a series of fun, educational and engaging activities to do together at home.

When: The video of Senator Booker will be shared with "CMOM at Home" Newsletter recipients on Saturday, June 20, 2020. The video will be available at 1pm on CMOM's website.

About CMOM:

Established in 1973, the Children's Museum of Manhattan is a vital destination and resource for New York City children and their families, dedicated to cultivating life-long learners across backgrounds and boroughs. A steward of early childhood education and development, CMOM offers imaginative and enriching exhibitions and programs that support, challenge, and inspire. Beyond the Museum walls, CMOM mounts outreach programs in 60 sites across the city, equips colleagues via professional development training programs, and shares its award-winning content through traveling exhibitions and online offerings.
